

Ideas to Share

Communication Device for Toddlers

A mobile communication device can be made by attaching Velcro to any bracelet, belt or shirt tag. The photo or picture symbol can be simply placed on the Velcro and the child can walk with her hands free. This works well for children who are in the beginning stage of picture symbol use and are always on the move!

Idea submitted by: Susan Carey, Hawaii
For more information: madie.chun@fhsc.health.state.hi.us